

John Fendrich Joins Dawson James Securities as Managing Director of Investments

April 25, 2016, New York— Dawson James Securities, Inc. announced today that John Fendrich has joined the firm as Managing Director of Investments at their New York office. Mr. Fendrich has been in the securities industry for over 28 years at various investment banking firms in New York City.

“We are very excited to announce that John has joined the Dawson James family. John’s leadership and market experience will add tremendous value to our firm. We are proud of the caliber of executive talent we are able to attract, as we welcome John on board,” stated Robert D. Keyser Jr., Dawson James’ CEO.

John Fendrich added, “Dawson James Securities is a dynamic organization that puts its clients first and is dedicated to integrity and quality. I am very pleased to join the firm, and look forward to driving its continued excellence in the securities industry.”

About Dawson James Securities

Dawson James Securities specializes in capital raising for small and microcap public and private growth companies primarily in the Life Science/Health Care, Technology and Consumer sectors and is a full service investment banking firm with research, institutional and retail sales, as well as execution trading and corporate services. According to Sagient Research Systems, Dawson James has been ranked as a top Placement Agent in terms of aggregate PIPE and RD transactions cumulatively since 2005. Dawson James utilizes a unique approach to financings using their trademarked DIO “Diversified Investor Offering” which blends investor interest using a combination of retail clients and Institutional investors. Dawson James will once again be hosting the Small Cap Growth Conference on October 20th at the Wyndam Hotel and Resort in Jupiter, Florida, which will feature the exciting “Up-list Bootcamp”. Headquartered in Boca Raton, FL, Dawson James is privately held with offices in New York, California, Maryland and New Jersey. www.dawsonjames.com

For more information on the Sagient Research Systems study and rankings, please click here.

John E. Fendrich

Managing Director-Investments

530 Fifth Avenue- 21st Floor

New York, NY 10036

(855) 928-0929 – Toll Free

(212) 897-9912 – Main

(646) 465-6890 – Direct

(212) 897-9916 – Facsimile

jfendrich@dawsonjames.com

Member: FINRA/SIPC